PLAYERS TO WATCH

ANDREW GOUDELOCK

So. • G • Charleston

Goudelock leads the Cougars, ranked fourth in the Southern Conference with an average of 16.9 points per game. He hit 44.5 percent of his 3-point attempts, connecting on 77-of-173. He ranked third in the league in 3-point field goal percentage (.445) and seventh in 3-pointers made per game (2.6). Goudelock posted a career-high 33 points in a win over Appalachian State on January 21. The sophomore guard was named to the 2008-09 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) All-District 22 First Team.

KEVIN ANDERSON

So. • G • Richmond

Coming off another stellar performance in his sophomore season, Anderson was named Atlantic 10 All-Conference Second Team. Anderson leads the Spiders and is seventh in the Atlantic 10 in scoring at 16.6 points per game, 12th in the Atlantic 10 in field goal percentage (.461), tenth in free throw percentage (.744), 13th in steals and third in minutes (36.55). The sophomore netted his career-high 28 points to help the Spiders defeat LaSalle on February 18th.

TONIGHT'S OTHER GAMES

Stanford vs. Wichita State • 8 p.m. ET Koch Arena • Wichita State, Kans.

Wichita State is led by the backcourt combo of Clevin Hannah and Toure' Murry, but face Stanford who scored 96 points in their Opening Round win over Boise State.

Northeastern vs. UTEP • 10 p.m. ET
Don Haskins Center • El Paso, Texas

The Huskies, on the heels of a 64-62 road win at Wyoming, head into El Paso to face the Miners and Conference USA's all-time leading scorer Stefon Jackson.

Vermont vs. Oregon State • 10 p.m. ET Gill Coliseum • Corvallis, Ore.

Two-time America East Player of the Year Marqus Blakely leads the Catamounts against the Beavers, who have gone from 0-18 in the Pac 10 last year to the postseason this year.

ASSISTANT COACHES - Mark Byington, Fred Dupree, Andrew Wilson

ABOUT CHARLESTON - The Cougars recorded their 27th win of the season with their 93-91 victory over Troy on Wednesday. The 2008-09 season was full with highlights, including the Feb. 7 defeat of Davidson that snapped a 43-game SoCon winning streak. Coach Bobby Cremins now has 519 career wins. Sophomore guard Andrew Goudelock and senior forward Jermaine Johnson were both recognized by the league's head coaches and placed on the All-Southern Conference first and third teams, respectively.

HOW THEY GOT HERE - The Cougars beat Troy in their Opening Round game, 93-91, as Goudelock and Tony White, Jr. combined for 53 points. Charleston led by 19 points at the half, but had to hold off a late Troy rally to win the game. The Cougars tied a CBI record by connecting on 16 three-pointers and set a new mark for best three-point shooting for a half (68.4%) and in a game (66.7%)

HEAD COACH - Chris Mooney (fourth season), 98-100 (.495) at Richmond

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH - Kevin McGeehan

ASSISTANT COACHES - Jamal Brunt, Rob Jones

ABOUT RICHMOND - Led by sophomore Kevin Anderson, Richmond capped their regular season with an 80-75 victory over No.17 Xavier, marking the second-straight season the Spiders have defeated a top-20 team in the Robins Center. The win clinched a tie for fifth in the Atlantic 10, and was one of only four teams in the A-10 to have finished in fifth place or better in each of the past two seasons. The Spiders closed out their season winning four of their last five games and six of their last eight.

HOW THEY GOT HERE - The Spiders beat St. John's, 75-69, in the Opening Rounds, behind 27 points from guard David Gonzalez and 20 points from Kevin Anderson. Richmond fell behind 19-5 in the early going and trailed by only eight points at the half. A 20-3 Richmond run, however, turned the game in the Spiders favor. Richmond won the game despite being out-rebounded 48-25 by the Red Storm, including 20 offensive rebounds.

ABOUT THE CBI

The College Basketball Invitational (CBI) provides a meaningful opportunity for teams that are deserving of a postseason experience. Sixteen teams compete in this new postseason event, hosted at on-campus arenas throughout the country.

The CBI is a single-elimination tournament, up until the Championship Series, with all games played at campus sites. The Championship Series is a best of three series in which the higher seed will get the first and last (if necessary) home games.

The event features eight first-round games, four second-round (or quarterfinal) games, a semifinal round and then a Championship Series.

Bracketing is conducted geographically into four regions of the country (East, West, South, Midwest) to minimize missed class time. The goal of the brackets is to create a competitive balance within each region. The final process takes place after the NCAA Tournament field is announced.

The 16-team field consists of teams not selected for the NCAA Tournament. Teams are invited based upon performance during their conference and non-conference schedule, as well as how well the team is playing at the end of the regular season.

The College Basketball Invitational is produced by The Gazelle Group in Princeton, N.J. The Gazelle Group is a sports marketing firm, specializing in event production and management, client representation, and sponsorship consulting. ## 2009 CBI TOURNAMENT NOTES

History Lesson – The introduction of the College Basketball Invitational marked the first time in over 30 years that there had been a third postseason tournament, other than the NCAA or the NIT. In 1974 and 1975, the Collegiate Commissioners Association Tournament was an eight-team tournament run by the NCAA, featuring teams that came in second in their conferences.

Down To The Wire – The 2008 College Basketball Invitational had the most competitive games among the three postseason tournaments...

- 7.0 – average margin of victory in CBI
- 12.7 – average margin of victory in NIT
- 14.3 – average margin of victory in NCAA

Filling It Up – A total of 87,455 fans attended games during the 2008 College Basketball Invitational, including sellout crowds of 9,014 at Bradley and 8,455 at Tulsa during the "Best of Three" Championship Series.

Conference Call – For the second straight year, the CBI will include teams from 13 different conferences. Three conferences, WAC (Nevada, Boise State), Conference USA (UTEP, Houston) and the Pac-10 Conference (Oregon State, Stanford), received multiple bids.

Welcome Back – Four teams return to play in the 2009 CBI after appearing in the inaugural event one year ago. Richmond, Nevada, UTEP and Houston appeared in last year's event, with Houston going to the tournament semifinals.

It's Been A While – Nine CBI teams in this year's field have waited at least four seasons since their last visit to the postseason. For Green Bay, the Phoenix are headed back to postseason play for the first time since 1996. Head Coach Tod Kowalczyk led Green Bay to a 22-10 record and a second place finish in the Horizon League.

Just Win, Baby – Thirteen of the sixteen teams in the 2009 CBI field won at least 18 games this season, including six 20-win teams: Buffalo, Charleston, Green Bay, Houston, Nevada and Vermont.

Wins, Wins and More Wins – CBI Tournament teams average 19.3 wins overall and 10.1 wins in conference play.

Even More Wins – College of Charleston has the most overall victories (26) and conference wins (15) of any team in the 2009 CBI.

Sharing The Wealth – Two teams in the CBI field, Vermont (America East) and Buffalo (MAC), earned a share of the regular-season championship in their conferences.

Conference Honors – The 2009 College Basketball Invitational features 26 players that received all-conference recognition, including 10 first-team selections.

More Honors – The 2009 CBI also features one conference "Player of the Year" winner. Vermont's Marqus Blakely won the honor in the America East Conference for the second year in a row. He is just the fifth player to win the award in consecutive seasons in the America East.

More Marqus – Blakely was named America East Defensive "Player of the Year" for the second year in a row, as well. He is the first player in conference history to win that award twice.

Fresh Faces – Nevada's Luke Babbitt and Wyoming's Afam Muojeke were named as their conference's "Freshman of the Year." The two could face off in the quarterfinals.
