PLAYERS TO WATCH

ANTHONY GOODS

Sr. • G • Stanford

For the second year in a row, Anthony Goods has received All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention honors, falling among the top in the conference for scoring, free throws and three-pointers made. Goods averaged a team-best 16.3 points per game along with 3.4 rebounds in the regular season. He posted team-high marks from three-point territory (66-169, 39.1 percent) and led the Cardinal in scoring on 14 occasions. His performance at the foul line nearly equaled the production over his first three seasons combined (134-169, 79.3 percent).

CLEVIN HANNAH

Jr. • G • Wichita State

Clevin Hannah, a member of the MVC All Newcomer Team, led the Shockers in assists and contributed 11.1 points in his first year at Wichita. He finished among the conference Top 20 in scoring (11.1 ppg), free throw percentage (73%) and steals (1.3), and second overall in assists (4.3). Clevin led the Shockers in scoring 10 times, earning his career high (26 points) in a tough loss to Southern Illinois late in the season.

TONIGHT'S OTHER GAMES

Charleston vs. Richmond • 7 p.m. ET
Robins Center • Richmond, Va.

The backcourts may determine the winner in this game. Andrew Goudelock and Tony White, Jr. combined for 53 points in their first round win, while David Gonzalez and Kevin Anderson netted 47 in their win over St. John's.

Northeastern vs. UTEP • 10 p.m. ET
Don Haskins Center • El Paso, Texas

The Huskies, on the heels of a 64-62 road win at Wyoming, head into El Paso to face the Miners and Conference USA's all-time leading scorer Stefon Jackson.

Vermont vs. Oregon State • 10 p.m. ET
Gill Coliseum • Corvallis, Ore.

Two-time America East Player of the Year Marqus Blakely leads the Catamounts against the Beavers, who have gone from 0-18 in the Pac 10 last year to the postseason this year.

ABOUT THE CBI

The College Basketball Invitational (CBI) provides a meaningful opportunity for teams that are deserving of a postseason experience. Sixteen teams compete in this new postseason event, hosted at on-campus arenas throughout the country.

The CBI is a single-elimination tournament, up until the Championship Series, with all games played at campus sites. The Championship Series is a best of three series in which the higher seed will get the first and last (if necessary) home games.

The event features eight first-round games, four second-round (or quarterfinal) games, a semifinal round and then a Championship Series.

Bracketing is conducted geographically into four regions of the country (East, West, South, Midwest) to minimize missed class time. The goal of the brackets is to create a competitive balance within each region. The final process takes place after the NCAA Tournament field is announced.

The 16-team field consists of teams not selected for the NCAA Tournament. Teams are invited based upon performance during their conference and non-conference schedule, as well as how well the team is playing at the end of the regular season.

The College Basketball Invitational is produced by The Gazelle Group in Princeton, N.J. The Gazelle Group is a sports marketing firm, specializing in event production and management, client representation, and sponsorship consulting. # 2009 CBI TOURNAMENT NOTES

History Lesson – The introduction of the College Basketball Invitational marked the first time in over 30 years that there had been a third postseason tournament, other than the NCAA or the NIT. In 1974 and 1975, the Collegiate Commissioners Association Tournament was an eight-team tournament run by the NCAA, featuring teams that came in second in their conferences.

Down To The Wire – The 2008 College Basketball Invitational had the most competitive games among the three postseason tournaments...

- 7.0 – average margin of victory in CBI
- 12.7 – average margin of victory in NIT
- 14.3 – average margin of victory in NCAA

Filling It Up – A total of 87,455 fans attended games during the 2008 College Basketball Invitational, including sellout crowds of 9,014 at Bradley and 8,455 at Tulsa during the "Best of Three" Championship Series.

Conference Call – For the second straight year, the CBI will include teams from 13 different conferences. Three conferences, WAC (Nevada, Boise State), Conference USA (UTEP, Houston) and the Pac-10 Conference (Oregon State, Stanford), received multiple bids.

Welcome Back – Four teams return to play in the 2009 CBI after appearing in the inaugural event one year ago. Richmond, Nevada, UTEP and Houston appeared in last year's event, with Houston going to the tournament semifinals.

It's Been A While – Nine CBI teams in this year's field have waited at least four seasons since their last visit to the postseason. For Green Bay, the Phoenix are headed back to postseason play for the first time since 1996. Head Coach Tod Kowalczyk led Green Bay to a 22-10 record and a second place finish in the Horizon League.

Just Win, Baby – Thirteen of the sixteen teams in the 2009 CBI field won at least 18 games this season, including six 20-win teams: Buffalo, Charleston, Green Bay, Houston, Nevada and Vermont.

Wins, Wins and More Wins – CBI Tournament teams average 19.3 wins overall and 10.1 wins in conference play.

Even More Wins – College of Charleston has the most overall victories (26) and conference wins (15) of any team in the 2009 CBI.

Sharing The Wealth – Two teams in the CBI field, Vermont (America East) and Buffalo (MAC), earned a share of the regular-season championship in their conferences.

Conference Honors – The 2009 College Basketball Invitational features 26 players that received all-conference recognition, including 10 first-team selections.

More Honors – The 2009 CBI also features one conference "Player of the Year" winner. Vermont's Marqus Blakely won the honor in the America East Conference for the second year in a row. He is just the fifth player to win the award in consecutive seasons in the America East.

More Marqus – Blakely was named America East Defensive "Player of the Year" for the second year in a row, as well. He is the first player in conference history to win that award twice.

Fresh Faces – Nevada's Luke Babbitt and Wyoming's Afam Muojeke were named as their conference's "Freshman of the Year." The two could face off in the quarterfinals.
