PLAYERS TO WATCH

KENNETH FARIED

Jr. • F/C • Morehead State

The Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year...Faried is the fifth Morehead State player to win the league's highest honor and first since Ricky Minard took home Player of the Year honors in 2002-03...ranked third in the league in scoring (16.8 ppg), first in rebounding (13.1 rpg), second in blocked shots (1.9 bpg), fourth in steals (1.6 spg), and fourth in field goal percentage (.567)...nationally, Faried ranks second in rebounding and double-doubles, recording 23 double-dips in 34 total games...he was named OVC Player of the Week five times during the 2009-10 season.

JOHN HOLLAND

Jr. • G/F • Boston University

Named to the first-team All-America East squad for the second time in as many seasons...he is the first Terrier since 2005 to be named to the all-conference first-team twice during his career...he is also the first Terrier to ever lead the America East in scoring with a 19.2 ppg scoring average...also averages 6.1 rebounds a game...reached the 1,000-point milestone against Northeastern earlier this season...currently ranks sixth in the BU record book with 1,519 points.

TONIGHT'S OTHER GAMES

Charleston vs. Virginia Commonwealth • 7 p.m. ET Verizon Wireless Arena • Richmond, Va.

Charleston is 22-11, marking the third time in four years under head coach Bobby Cremins that they achieved a 20-win season. VCU is 23-9 this season and is led by the Colonial Athletic Association's Defensive Player of the Year and first-team all-conference pick Larry Sanders.

Princeton vs. IUPUI • 7 p.m. ET The Jungle • Indianapolis, Ind.

Princeton, behind second-year head coach Sydney Johnson, have a 21-8 record after winning just 11 games the season prior to his arrival. Senior Robert Glenn and sophomore Alex Young pace IUPUI, which owns a 25-10 record - the most wins of any CBI team.

Green Bay vs. Saint Louis • 9 p.m. ET Chaifetz Arena • St. Louis, Mo.

Head coach Tod Kowalczyk has led UWGB to a 22-12 mark and back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time in 14 years. Meanwhile, SLU, under the direction of head coach Rick Majerus, is 21-11 despite being the youngest team in the country.

ABOUT THE CBI

The College Basketball Invitational (CBI) provides a meaningful opportunity for teams that deserve a postseason experience. Sixteen teams compete in this three-year-old postseason event, hosted at on-campus arenas throughout the country.

The CBI is a single-elimination tournament up until the Championship Series, with all games played at campus sites. The Championship Series is a best-of-three series.

The event features eight first-round games, four quarterfinal round games, a semifinal round, and then the Championship Series.

The goal of the brackets is to create a competitive balance within each bracket and to minimize missed class time. The final process takes place after the NCAA Tournament field is announced.

The 16-team field consists of teams not selected for the NCAA Tournament. Teams are invited based upon performance during their conference and non-conference schedules, as well as how well the team is playing at the end of the regular season.

The College Basketball Invitational is produced by The Gazelle Group in Princeton, N.J. The Gazelle Group is a sports marketing firm specializing in event production and management, client representation, and sponsorship consulting. For more information, visit gazellegroup.com.

2010 CBI TOURNAMENT NOTES

Third Annual CBI – The third annual College Basketball Invitational tipped off on March 16 with a pair of Opening Round games, with six additional Opening Round games played on March 17. The Quarterfinals commence on Monday, March 22, followed by Semifinal Round action on Wednesday, March 24.

The unique quality of the CBI is it's best-of-three Championship Round, which will be held March 29, March 31, and April 2. The highest remaining seed would host two games should a third game be necessary. In each of the first two CBIs, the Championship Round went the full three games.

The Next Step – Three members of the 2010 CBI field – Oregon State, Charleston, and Green Bay – participated in last year's CBI. There are now seven programs that have been to multiple CBI events. Of the four which played in 2008 and 2009 – Houston, Nevada, Richmond, and UTEP – Houston, Richmond, and UTEP made the 2010 NCAA Tournament. Houston, which advanced to the 2008 CBI semifinals before losing its Opening Round game in 2009, used the CBI to catapult itself into the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1992. Richmond, which went to the 2009 CBI semis, reached the NAAs for the first time since 2004. UTEP, the 2009 CBI runner-up, earned its first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 2005.

Did You Know – Tulsa (2008) and Oregon State (2009) won the first two College Basketball Invitationals. Both series went the distance as Tulsa won Games 1 and 3 against Bradley in 2008 and Oregon State did the same in 2009 against UTEP.

Fantastic – 172,474 fans attended games at the first two CBI Tournaments. In both years, the final two games of the Championship Series were played before sellout crowds of 9,014 at Bradley (2008), 8,455 at Tulsa (2008), and 12,000 at UTEP (2009).

Manning Up – If you want defense, you have come to the right place. The 2010 CBI will feature no less than five players who were named their league's Defensive Player of the Year. Charleston's Jeremy Simmons (co-Defensive Player) (Southern), Duquesne's Damian Saunders (Atlantic 10), Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (Ohio Valley), Oregon State's Seth Tarver (Pac-10), and VCU's Larry Sanders (CAA) all garnered the award.

In addition to being named Defensive Player of the Year, Faried was named the Ohio Valley Conference's Player of the Year. Hofstra's Charles Jenkins enters the CBI as the Player of the Year in the Colonial Athletic Association. Alex Young of IUPUI was the Sixth Man of the Year in the Summit League.

Home Rule...Not This Year – Home teams posted a 23-11 record in the first two College Basketball Invitationals. In 2008, home teams were 13-4, including 3-0 in the Championship Series. In 2009, home teams were 10-7 with Oregon State winning the CBI title on UTEP's home floor. However, this year home teams are just 3-5 on their floors. Only Morehead State, Princeton, and Saint Louis have won their home games.

Win, Baby, Win – Nine teams in this year's CBI field earned CBI bids with at least 20 wins during the 2009-10 season, seven of which won their Opening Round games. Akron and IUPUI led the way with 24 victories apiece. (IUPUI is now at 25.) They are joined by Morehead State (24) VCU (23), Charleston (22), Green Bay (22), Princeton (21), Saint Louis (21), and Eastern Kentucky (20). With its 96-78 win at Oregon State, Boston University has now won 20 games.
