

Tennessee, West Virginia, Texas & New Mexico State Set as Regional Hosts for Inaugural Legends Classic

PRINCETON, N.J. – Tennessee, West Virginia, Texas, and New Mexico State will serve as the four regional hosts for the inaugural Legends Classic. The eight-team men's college basketball tournament will tip-off Nov. 14-18 at the regional sites and will conclude with the Championship Rounds Nov. 23-24 at the newly-built Prudential Center in Newark, N.J. Prudential Center, managed by AEG, is the first new major sports and entertainment venue in the nation's top media market in over 25 years and will open on October 25.

In addition to showcasing some of the nation's premier men's college basketball teams, the Legends Classic was also established to honor former players and coaches from the participating teams that have made a significant contribution to the sport. The "Legends" will be recognized annually at the event.

On-sale dates for tickets, as well as the full tournament bracket and television coverage, will be announced at a later date. Once on sale, Regional Round tickets may be purchased through the host schools' box offices, while Championship Round tickets may be purchased through ticketmaster.com.
