

GOTHAM CLASSIC

A BRIEF HISTORY

2015 - Michael Young scored 22 points and hauled down six rebounds as Pittsburgh used a 33-12 run to erase a seven-point first half deficit and beat Davidson 94-69 in the Gotham Classic Showcase Game at Madison Square Garden. Young was named the most outstanding player of the Gotham Classic.

2014 - T.J. Cline earned most outstanding player honors for posting team highs of 13 points (5-of-6 shooting from the field), five rebounds, and three assists in leading Richmond to a 65-63 win over Pepperdine at Madison Square Garden. The contest saw 12 lead changes and four ties - mostly in the first half - as the Spiders took the lead for good with 12:03 to play.

In the nightcap, Juwan Staten scored 24 points and handed out six assists to take MOP laurels as No. 22 West Virginia claimed an 83-69 win over NC State. The Wolfpack's Trevor Lacey also netted 24 points.

2013 - Lenzelle Smith, Jr. scored seven of his nine points in the final 33 seconds as No. 2 Ohio State rallied from an eight-point deficit with 58 seconds to play to beat Notre Dame, 64-61. The Buckeyes closed the game on a 14-3 run and Smith was the key to the closing spurt. LaQuinton Ross led the Buckeyes with 16 points and 11 rebounds to garner most outstanding player honors.

2012 - In the inaugural Gotham Classic, Khalif Wyatt scored a career-high 33 points in leading Temple to an 83-79 victory over No. 3 Syracuse. The win marked the fifth straight season Temple had beaten a top 10 team while being unranked themselves. C.J. Fair had a career-high 25 points for Syracuse, which saw its 52-game regular season non-conference winning streak snapped.
