GAZELLE GROUP EXCITED TO ANNOUNCE THE ADDITION OF TOMASS LATISEVS TO NIL ROSTER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Princeton, NJ – October 19, 2026

The Gazelle Group is excited to welcome Tomass Latisevs, a talented Class of 2028 guard from Latvia, to the Gazelle NIL family. Latisevs brings a strong international basketball background, having represented Latvia at the U16 level. Known for his ability to knock down shots from beyond the arc and facilitate for his teammates, he brings a versatile skill set and an international perspective to the court.

For the upcoming season, Latisevs is committed to Mount Carmel, where he will continue to develop his game and make an impact as a skilled perimeter shooter and playmaker. With his international experience, ability to space the floor, and vision as a facilitator, Latisevs will look to build on his foundation and continue his growth as a promising young guard.

“We’re excited to welcome Tomass Latisevs to the Gazelle family,” said Kevin Nickelberry, Vice President of Development in NIL at The Gazelle Group. “Tomass has gained valuable experience representing Latvia at the U16 level and brings a strong combination of shooting ability and playmaking to the court. We’re excited to support him as he continues his development at Mount Carmel and pursues his goals both on and off the court.”

The Gazelle Group is proud to represent Latisevs as he enters this next chapter of his basketball journey and looks forward to supporting his continued growth and success both on and off the court through opportunities within its NIL portfolio.
